

Washington, D. C. 20505

18 July 1979

STAT Dear

I just this past weekend had the opportunity to read your excellent paper, "Human Needs and Motivation for Recruitment." It was fascinating. Not only did it answer a number of questions which have occurred to me over the past months, but it stimulated further thought and interest. I intend to pursue this shortly with some of your former colleagues and the operations people.

I wish you all the best in retirement and assure you that you are missed!

Yours,

A handwritten signature in dark ink, appearing to read "Stansfield Turner", written in a cursive style.

STANSFIELD TURNER

